

The Deep End : My words will not pass away

In today's Gospel, Jesus is revealing to his disciples something about the new order which is coming. He talks about the "end times" and this can appear frightening at first.

However, if we enter into a meditation on this Gospel we might bring to mind something of those moments in our own lives when we felt like our world was ending. Perhaps it was the end of a relationship, the death of a loved one, the end of one stage of your life. Things which seemed so familiar and helped keep us secure suddenly changed. These can be extremely difficult periods of one's life's. It is during those times that someone comes to us offering prophecy of better times to come, of words that "will not pass away".

Jesus is preparing the disciples for what is about to happen to him and with assurance that God's kingdom is far greater than any evil that is about to occur. Whenever we experience trauma we keep going with the assurance that resurrection is all around us and a new way of being is on the horizon.
