

The Deep End

In today's gospel Jesus is presented as the courageous leader, instructing those who will follow on from him and carry on his work for future generations. He sat down and said to the twelve, "Whoever wants to be first must be last of all and servant of all." Then he took a little child and said, "Whoever welcomes one such child in my name welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me welcomes not me but the one who sent me." This September we celebrate the Season of Creation. Pope Francis challenges us to reflect: "What kind of world do we want to leave to those who come after us, to children who are now growing up?" In the context of today's gospel we might ask: how are we welcoming generations to come? Pope Francis urges us to remember the goods of the earth are not meant to be exploited and states "Doomsday predictions can no longer be met with irony or disdain. We may well be leaving to coming generations debris, desolation and filth." Let us reconnect once more with nature and restore our relationship with the environment. As parish communities we must ensure that our world is liveable for generations to come.
