MISSION SUNDAY

We can see clearly through the faith that has been given to us. "The Lord has done great things for us." We now have to help others to see the way, to guide them to the streams of saving water.

God gives to each person a unique mission. Some are called to very public lives; others called to quiet and simple lives. Some are called to use their minds in powerful ways; others are called to use their hearts in special ways, but each person has a unique mission from God.

What is your mission? Seeking to know what the Lord asks of you is essential to your journey of holiness and, therefore, happiness. When fully embraced, this mission will bring abundant fulfilment to your life because of one simple fact: every mission is a mission of Mercy.

The struggle many people have is that they embark on selfish endeavours in life, failing to commit all their energies to the work of the Lord. The Lord wants you to work day and night on His mission. His mission will certainly include moments of fun and rest, work and struggle, laughter and tears. But it's worth it!

Seek the mission God has given you and embrace it with all your heart.

If you do, the Mercy of God will pour forth through your life.

Reflect, today, upon this simple question: What is my mission in life?
