SUNDAY: "MOST FAITHFUL"

Colette Given, a mother, grandmother, retired teacher, and prayer guide, will share her thoughts on prayer, listening for God in the silence, and hearing Him speak through His word.

MONDAY: "FOSTER-FATHER OF CHRIST"

Brian and Karyn Birney, a married couple with two young boys, will reflect on their story as a family so far, St. Joseph's role as foster-father of Jesus, and what he might teach us today.

TUESDAY: "PATRON OF THE DYING"

Majella Brogan, a Marie Curie registered nurse, will reflect on Joseph's role as Patron of the Dying and her role in palliative care.

WEDNESDAY: "THE WORKER"

Malachy McAleer, a civil engineer and former CEO of South West College, will reflect on Joseph the Worker, the dignity of human labour, and his learning from a life-time of work.

THURSDAY: "MOST JUST"

Orla Dyson, a married mother of four and a solicitor and Lay Magistrate who specialises in Family and Immigration Law, will speak on St. Joseph the Just Man, and will reflect on issues of justice affecting our world today.

FRIDAY: "PATRON OF EXILES"

Originally from Clones, Co. Monaghan, Nicholas Cassidy worked as a Divine Word Missionary in Ecuador from 1980-2000. He now works with Omagh Ethnic Communities Support Group as a project co-ordinator and manager. His talk will focus on seeing Christ in the "other".

SUNDAY: "FIRST ADORER OF CHRIST"

After spending time with the Sisters of Adoration, Máire McAteer is now the Development and Prayer Group Officer for Youth 2000 Ireland. Her talk will focus on Eucharistic Adoration, reflecting on how St. Joseph was among the first to adore Christ.
