POPE LEO XIV

Why he chose the name Leo

".... I chose to take the name Leo XIV. There are different reasons for this, but mainly because Pope Leo XIII in his historic Encyclical Rerum Novarum addressed the social question in the context of the first great industrial revolution. In our own day, the Church offers to everyone the treasury of her social teaching in response to another industrial revolution and to developments in the field of artificial intelligence that pose new challenges for the defence of human dignity, justice and labour."

The motto

Pope Leo XIV has also chosen a motto that reflects his Augustinian tradition: In Illo uno unum, which means "In the One, we are one." The phrase is taken from Saint Augustine's Exposition on Psalm 127, where he explains that "although we Christians are many, in the one Christ we are one."

Coat of arms

Pope Leo XIV's coat of arms offers a clear reflection of his Augustinian roots and the values he seeks to promote during his pontificate, particularly unity and communion within the church.

The shield is divided diagonally into two sections. The upper half features a blue background with a white lily. The lower half of the shield has a light background and displays an image that recalls the Order of Saint Augustine: a closed book with a heart pierced by an arrow. This is a direct reference to the conversion experience of Saint Augustine himself, who described his personal encounter with God's Word using the phrase: "Vulnerasti cor meum verbo tuo" - "You have pierced my heart with your Word."

PRAY FOR VOCATIONS

In the gospel (Lk 10:1-2, 17-20) Jesus invites us to “...ask the Lord of the harvest to send labourers into His harvest...” because “The harvest is rich but the labourers are few.” As we thank God for our seminarians and the men currently discerning a vocation we pray that many more will hear, and respond positively, to the Lord’s call to serve the Church as priests of the diocese.

THE POPE’S MONTHLY INTENTION / July: For formation in discernment

Let us pray that we might again learn how to discern, to know how to choose paths of life and reject everything that leads us away from Christ and the Gospel.

SUMMER PRAYER

For the light of the sun in the sky. For the light which shines through the window. For the light that shines early in the morning. For the light that shines late in the evening. We give God thanks and praise.
